

Appendix B

HONOLULU ENGINEER DISTRICT MISSION STATEMENT

1. Provides engineering products and services, through the project management business process (PMBP) as embodied in ER 5-1-11, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Business Process, to military customers, civil customers, and other agencies consistent with law, policy, and regulation in Hawaii and assigned portion of the Pacific Region. Performs other duties as assigned.
2. Assigned missions include:
 - a. Preparing planning and engineering studies and designs.
 - b. Constructing military, Civil Works, and other facilities.
 - c. Supporting Army and Air Force installations with facilities engineering, environmental, real estate, and other technical support as required.
 - d. Operating and maintaining flood control and river and harbor facilities and installations.
 - e. Administering the Corps' Regulatory Program.
 - f. Acquiring, managing, and disposing of real estate.
 - g. Performing hazardous, toxic, and radioactive waste missions as assigned.
 - h. Implementing the Corps' Dam Safety Program.
 - i. Conducting emergency operations pursuant to special statutory authorities.
3. Represents the Division Commander on all matters within the scope of the Corps of Engineers' mission in Honolulu Engineer District's area of responsibility.
 - a. Provides real estate services in Hawaii for the Army and the Air Force; on Wake Island and Johnston Island for the Air Force; in Hawaii, Guam, and Samoa for the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps recruiting commands; and in the Marshall Islands, American Samoa, and Guam, IAW the respective Memorandums of Understanding. Also provides appraisal services in Asia and Kwajalein, upon request.

b. Administers and executes the Corps of Engineers' Civil Works mission in the State of Hawaii and in the U.S. territories and possessions in the Pacific Ocean.

c. Administers and executes the Corps of Engineers' military construction mission in support of the Army, Air Force and other DOD components or activities in the State of Hawaii, except areas assigned to the Navy, and in the Marshall Islands.

d. Directs and supervises planning, engineering, design, and construction services for:

(1) U.S. Government (other than DOD) agencies in the State of Hawaii and other Pacific geographical areas.

(2) Foreign governments, as specifically authorized by the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Civil Works.

(3) The State of Hawaii, American Samoa, Guam, and Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands IAW Memorandums of Understanding.

e. Exercises responsibility for wartime contingency planning within District geographical areas of responsibility. Serves as DOD Construction Agent for the Marshall Islands (USCINCPACINST 11010.2G, Jun 94).